

Bombay Kitchen

User Reviews for Bombay Kitchen

What Users are Saying

Prompt seating: yes

Make reservations: no

Romantic: yes

Good for kids: yes

Good for groups: yes

Great Food, authentic cuisine and Great Service

07/16/2007 Posted by jmacdoug

My department went for a "business lunch" and it was such an awesome experience. They had our own section set up for us and really provided first class service. The food was fresh and the menu was very diversified, something for everyone's palate. I have been several times and look forward to returning.

Freshly prepared with perfect amount of spice. Good service

07/16/2007 Posted by parag1974

In spite of there being so many Indian restaurants around Raleigh/Durham area, not many of them are really up to the par. However I can confidently say that Bombay Kitchen can make it in the list of your favorite restaurants once you try. It's clean, elegantly decorated and does give a warm relaxing feeling as you walk in. They seem to have done a lot of remodeling and the place looks just right for fine dining with a quality of both food and service. We were amazed to see them carry wide variety of beers (indian/american) & wines [www.bombay-kitchen] The food is cooked to order and they have a great & varied menu. Vegetable samosa, tandoori Chicken, Chicken Tikka masala, Kadai Paneer, vegetable dum biryani are some of the delicious entrees that I would recommend for sure. Not only is the food delicious, but their service is outstanding. The entire staff is very hospitable and courteous, which is not something you see in most of the Indian restaurants. A little out of the way for us as we leave in Morrisville but it was worth a trip. Their "service with a smile" will definitely bring us back... The owners were very pleasant and strive to make sure you have a good experience. They were very interested in getting some feedback and honest opinions from us. We chatted for a few moments with them. It seems they vary their lunch buffet to keep things fresh and interesting. They mentioned that they have Pav Bhaji sometimes on the lunch buffets as customers seem to like it a lot. They walked us around the restaurant to show us what they have to offer their customers. They do have a decent sized party hall which seems to be perfect for party occasions!!! We will definitely be returning to Bombay Kitchen for more savory, flavorful Indian cuisine.

Pros: Freshly prepared with perfect amount of spice. Good service

Five stars from me all the way from food to service

07/07/2007 Posted by rajanu

.It was our anniversary and had a great evening dinner at this new restaurant. We have none in Wake Forest area and have been long looking for a go to Indian restaurant and found one now. We would always like to come back to. The Dum Biryani (Kashmiri style) was fantastic garnished with Saffron and nuts. The Indian beer they carry is unbelievable. We tried the 'Lion Stout' for the first time on recommendation of the restaurant staff; it goes very well with the Indian food. We expected a hefty bill surprisingly spent less than $50.00 for two. Five stars from me all the way from food to service

Pros: Five stars from me all the way from food to service

Excellent food and top class service comes to my mind.

07/05/2007 Posted by sunishar

Excellent food and top class service comes to my mind. The food is fresh and extremely delicious. Our previous experience with other Indian restaurant was not good particularly with the "Samosas" We started off with the Samosas as appetizers and Mango lassi. We ordered Lamb Rogan Ghost and Mango Chicken. The food was Sumptuous and very satisfying. The Garlic naan was crisp and pretty large, enough for two. The service was courteous and prompt. All orders served within 15 minutes and to the spice level we ordered. The price was also less compared to other restaurants. We drove from Cary on recommendation of our neighbors and the trip was well worth it. Being a new restaurant (I think) and our first time we would surely like to come back.

Pros: Great service excellent food. Best lamb dish eaten so far.